Frances Lincoln Children’s Books is considered one of the world’s most respected publishers on the topic of cultural diversity. The list is proud to publish in partnership with key institutions including the Natural History Museum and Amnesty International and prides itself in working with some of the world’s most innovative illustrators and storytellers.

Wide Eyed Editions creates original non-fiction for children and families, believing that books should encourage curiosity about the world, inspiring readers to set out on their own journey of discovery of the arts, natural history and armchair travel. The imprint champions contemporary illustration and physical books, bringing a new sense of wonder to classic themes in simple, quality formats that look and feel like beautiful objects.

Ivy Kids is Quarto’s first sustainably-produced imprint, aiming to rewild young minds with hopeful stories and inspiring information about the natural world. The books are sustainably printed on recycled paper, locally in the UK and using renewable energy to minimise the environmental impact of their production.

Happy Yak is a loveable new imprint for 0-7 year olds. Offering pre-school, picture books and illustrated non-fiction, our purpose is to publish playful books that make you smile. Our pre-school series is underpinned by core developmental benefits, from interactive books that aid motor control through to first concepts such as words and numbers. Looking for a book that will fill your child’s head with knowledge whilst providing endless entertainment? Our non-fiction, fact-filled, accessible titles make learning genuinely fun!

QED Publishing is a vibrant, eclectic list of fun educational books for children by expert writers and fantastic illustrators from around the world. Our beautiful reference and engaging activity books help children learn more about a subject – at school or at home – and develop their interests beyond the classroom. Our mission is to create fresh, informative, high-quality books covering core educational topics and high-interest, curricula-adjacent themes appealing to children, parents and teachers alike.
In 2021 Frances Lincoln Children’s Books (FLCB) was thrilled to win the Illustrated Books category of the Waterstones Children’s Prize with Grumpy Fairies by Bethan Stevens. FLCB has always championed new talent and will continue to do so under the sub-imprint ‘First Editions’. Among the First Editions publishing in 2022 is Flooded - a hugely exciting debut picture book with important messages about community.

This year we celebrate the arrival of spring with The Spring Rabbit, a sumptuous Easter Bunny origin story. Our gift-book list also sees the return of Sophie Corrigan with Animal BFFs - a hilarious exploration of symbiotic relationships in nature.

FLCB is dedicated to publishing books about issues that matter. In May (just in time for Pride month) we’re publishing Here and Queer, a guidebook on LGBTQ+ identities written for teens. We’re also proud to publish a new title from the Fan Brothers. It Fell From the Sky is an extraordinary fable encouraging children to ask questions about who owns our natural world.

Finally, our market-leading series Little People, Big Dreams continues to grow. This year we have a stellar programme that includes Nelson Mandela, Florence Nightingale, Elvis Presley, Pablo Picasso - and Marcus Rashford! This series shows children that if they dream big, they can change the world.

Associate Publisher, Frances Lincoln Children’s Books
Little People, BIG DREAMS is the original and best-selling series of illustrated biographies that explore the lives of outstanding people, from designers and artists to scientists and activists. All of them achieved incredible things, yet each began life as a child with a dream.

Little People, BIG DREAMS is the perfect first library for sharing with children aged 4-7. Each book is a perfectly plotted biography and has a facts and photos section at the back. With stunning illustrations throughout, the series is highly collectable.

Over 3.7 million global sales so far. The series is already published in 22 languages, with more being added every month, and it has been optioned by a major animation company.

MARIA ISABEL SÁNCHEZ VEGARA, born in Barcelona, Spain, is a writer and creative director in constant search of new concepts for children’s books.

NELSON MANDELA
Maria Isabel Sánchez Vegara. Illustrated by Alison Hawkins
9780711257894

Discover the incredible life of Nelson Mandela, the anti-apartheid freedom fighter.

Little Nelson’s given name was Rolihlahla, which means “troublemaker” in Xhosa, his language. But his rebellious nature would lead him to become one of the world’s most inspirational civil rights’ leaders and anti-apartheid revolutionaries. Despite the many years of imprisonment and adversity he faced, upon his release Nelson was voted to become South Africa’s first Black president.
FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE
Maria Isabel Sánchez Vegara. Illustrated by Kelsey Garrity-Riley
9780711270770

Growing up in an upper-class family, Florence was expected to find a husband and live a life of luxury - but that wasn’t the life for her. Her calling was to care for the sick, so she followed her passion and trained to be a nurse. When war broke out, Florence nursed wounded soldiers, but found that hospitals were so dirty they were making people ill! She led a healthcare revolution and became the mother of modern nursing, introducing practices still followed today.

J. R. R. TOLKIEN
Maria Isabel Sánchez Vegara. Illustrated by Aaron Cushley
9780711257856

Little John experienced lots of change in his life from a young age. Moving from South Africa to a big city in England, he longed for the nature he grew up around. After the death of both of his parents, John found comfort in telling stories and building imaginary worlds with his friends. And he continued to tell stories for the rest of his life, creating epic tales of hobbits, dwarves, elves and wizards as J. R. R. Tolkien.

When Marcus was a kid, he had a family that loved him and a talent for football. His mum, Melanie, worked long hours to provide for her family, but sometimes she would go without food herself to make sure that her children had enough to eat. With his mum’s support, he worked hard and trained for years to reach the top of the game. But no matter how successful he became, he never forgot his experience as a hungry child. When schools were closed during the pandemic of 2020, the situation left schoolchildren without free meals that they would have had. And so Marcus took it upon himself to lead a nation-wide campaign to ensure that no child would go without food.

Pablo grew up in an artistic household, creating his first painting at nine years old. He spent his youth learning about art, and mastering his craft. In his own time, Pablo was so poor that sometimes he had to burn his own paintings to stay warm. But today, his paintings are known as some of the greatest in history, and Cubism, the art style he created, changed the face of art forever.

As a child who grew up in poverty, music was one of Elvis’s treasures. He knew that his calling in life was to be a singer after winning his school’s talent show. With a move of his hip and a curl of his lip, Elvis set the world on fire and became a star. A true pioneer of music, he is forever known by legions of fans as The King of Rock and Roll.
NEIL ARMSTRONG
Maria Isabel Sánchez Vegara
9780711271012

Little Neil’s dreams took flight when he rode on his first airplane as a child. After studying aeronautical engineering and time spent in the navy, he became a pilot. From there, he was selected to take a trip to where no human had gone before – the moon! Along with his team, Buzz and Mike, he was the captain of the Apollo 11. And Neil took a giant step for humankind as the first person to ever step onto the surface of the moon.

Little Ehrich emigrated with his family from Hungary to the USA. When he was just nine, he worked as a trapeze artist, and this experience led him into a life of entertainment. But while working as a locksmith by day, he realised that he would need more than a deck of cards to really ‘wow’ people... and so, the great Harry Houdini came to be. As Houdini, the escape artist who could free himself from handcuffs, chains and knots, he toured the world and became known for his incredible death-defying stunts.

MARCH 2022
Juvenile Nonfiction/Biography & Autobiography/Performing Arts
A funny and beautifully illustrated tale of animals who live in a city that is ever so slowly flooding.

The flood comes gradually at first. A business lion reads about it in the paper over his breakfast and absent-mindedly says, “Hmm!” but does nothing about it. All the animals ignore the obvious and go about their busy lives, preoccupied by their own problems. Eventually, the flood water reaches a height that they can no longer ignore and they have to work together to save their city.

This is an exceptionally illustrated story that teaches a message not to let problems fester and with a little teamwork and community spirit, no problem is insurmountable.

- This young illustrator’s star is most definitely rising, becoming the overall winner of the AIO awards in November 2020.
- A sensitive message that could be related to climate change but also works as more general story about the importance of community and not letting a problem build up.
- This book received 29 votes from a panel of leading international publishers in the DPictus Unpublished picture book awards.

MARIOJO ILLUSTRAJO is a Spanish illustrator based in the UK. She completed her MA in Children’s Illustration from the prestigious Cambridge Anglia Ruskin course in April 2021. In November 2020 she was crowned the overall winner of the 2020 Association of Illustrators award.

Here and Queer
Rowan Ellis. Illustrated by Jacky Sheridan

A guidebook on living your best queer life.

Here and Queer is a go-to guide for how to live your best LGBTQ+ life. Packed full of heartfelt advice, comforting stories and cool illustrations, the book will give readers the agency and reassurance to explore their own identity, on their own terms. Featuring chapters on coming out, sex and romance, self-expression and self-care, queer history, and pride and activism, as well as guest essays, this sister title to Yay, You’re Gay is an affirming celebration of queerness.

- A bright and inclusive celebration of LGBTQ+ identities.
- Warm text by Rowan Ellis is fun and frank, and packed with practical advice.
- Guest essays from contributors ensures that the book takes an intersectional look at queerness.

Rowan Ellis is a writer, YouTuber and LGBTQ+ advocate based in the UK who creates content from a feminist and queer perspective. Her YouTube channel currently has over 170,000 subscribers. Jacky Sheridan uses her unique humour and style to create fun, bold and engaging work. She lends her illustration talent to artistic activism around causes such as queer rights, feminism and body positivity.
An ABC of Democracy

Nancy Shapiro. Illustrated by Paulina Morgan

The third book in this bestselling series of ABC books for politically engaged parents.

This brand-new title in the bestselling series introduces the youngest of children to democracy and what it means. From A to Z, keywords, such as debate, election, and vote, are simply explained. Each term is accompanied by colourful illustrations and bite-size text that sums up the concepts. An ABC of Democracy is the perfect book for parents who want to teach their children about society, liberty and justice for all.

Paulina Morgan is an independent illustrator based in Santiago de Chile. She studied design before moving to Barcelona, Spain to obtain her master’s degree in Art Direction. She worked in advertising before deciding to pursue her passion for illustration. Dr. Nancy Shapiro is a clinical psychologist currently in private practice working with adults. She has been working in the field of mental health since 1987. Outside of work, she has been a political activist for 34 years, is a mother of three children, plays tennis, composes music, cycles and reads.

How Can We Be Kind?

Janet Halfmann and Darla Okado

Learn how to be kind by following examples from the wonderful animals that call planet Earth home.

How can we be kind? It’s a simple question, and the answer is: by learning from animals! Capybaras teach us how to be welcoming, letting other animals sit on top of them while they wallow in the mud. Baboons look after each other by grooming each other’s backs. Give hugs like koalas, or stick up for your friends like zebras. Sweet and thoughtful, this book is both a celebration of the animal world and a manifesto for everyday kindness.

A stunning Easter Bunny origin story by talented children’s author, Angela McAllister, and the master of folk tales, Christopher Corr.

At the end of winter, a girl named Spring awakes from her slumber in the snow. She finds a little bird suffering from the cold, so she turns it into a rabbit with thick fur so it will be warm. To show their gratitude, birds gather eggs which Rabbit collects in a beautiful basket. Spring tells Rabbit to give them to the children so that they will know Spring is here. This beautiful folk tale shows young children how the Easter Bunny came to be.

ANGELA MCALLISTER is the author of over 80 books for children and teens. Her books have won several awards, including the Red House Book Award and the Stockport and Portsmouth Awards. Her picture book Leon and the Place Between has been adapted for the stage and was shortlisted for the Kate Greenaway Award. She has worked on many titles for Frances Lincoln Children’s Books including bestselling titles A Year Full of Stories.

CHRISTOPHER CORR is an established author and illustrator whose many books have won him international acclaim. He studied at the Royal College of Art and now works in London as an artist and tutor at Goldsmiths University.
IT FELL FROM THE SKY
Eric Fan and Terry Fan

A powerful fable encouraging children to ask questions about who owns our natural world and the importance of sharing.

A story of community, art and the importance of giving back. The wonder fell from the sky, near Spider’s house, so he’s convinced it belongs to him. Spider builds a display – insects can look at it! So what if he has to charge a fee? So what if the lines are long? Or if no one can even see the wonder any more? But what will Spider do after everyone stops showing up?

This beautiful and whimsical tale comes from the talented creators of The Night Gardener, Ocean Meets Sky and The Barnabus Project. Beautifully packaged in hardback and jacket with two foil colours on the cover, this picture book is an object to treasure.

Also available:
The Night Gardener 9781847809391 | £12.99 | HB
The Barnabus Project 9780711249448 | £14.99 | HB
Ocean Meets Sky 9781786035622 | PB | £7.99

TERRY FAN’s work is a blend of traditional and contemporary techniques, using ink or graphite mixed with digital. His children’s books include The Night Gardener, The Antlered Ship and Ocean Meets Sky. ERIC FAN is an artist and writer who studied illustration, sculpture and film at the Ontario College of Art and Design.
Wolf Girl
Jo Loring-Fisher

An adventure in finding your courage, seen through the eyes of a young girl who doesn’t fit in.
Sophy tries to talk at school but the words get stuck in her throat and everyone laughs. But one day, she finds herself in a magical land, with a wolf and her cub. Sophy’s found friends and nothing can ruin it… until an angry bear appears. But Sophy finally finds her voice and the courage she’s been looking for. This is a story of overcoming shyness, finding friends and finding your courage.

Jo Loring-Fisher is an illustrator and storyteller. She enjoys creating images using a range of materials including collage, inks, paint and printmaking. Much of Jo’s inspirations comes from observing nature and everyday life. Her other picture books include Taking Time and Just Like You.
A story about learning to see with the full colour of your imagination.
Mo is a little boy who desperately wants to “see like an artist”. He tries to see the things the way Jo the artist does, but when he starts to use his imagination, he realises that the things he can dream up are unique. Ultimately, he discovers that we all have brilliant imaginations, making us all artists, and that no two artists‘ eyes are the same.

FRANCES TOSDEVIN studied Classics at Cambridge and worked as a journalist in the Middle East before starting to write for children. An Artist’s Eyes is her debut picture book. CLÉMENCE MONNET uses Indian ink and watercolour to achieve her very poetic style. Hector and the Wild Beasts is her first children’s book published by Seuil Jeunesse in France.
Sing along to the rhyme with this delightful book of first experiences set in a town populated by dogs! “This is the way we brush our teeth, brush our teeth, brush our teeth. This is the way we brush our teeth, early in the morning.”

This Book Can Read Your Mind

Susannah Lloyd, illustrated by Jacob Grant

A hilariously interactive picture book: think of silly things, then see them gloriously brought to life on the next page.

“I will need you to think of something, but whatever you do, don’t think of anything SILLY. You know, like a pink elephant...”

When the page is turned, sure enough, a pink elephant appears! This funny interactive book plays on the idea that when you’re told NOT to think of something, somehow it is all you can think about. More and more silliness ensues!

Wide Eyed Editions’ Spring 2022 programme brings a riot of colour and joy. Young readers will have their funny bones tickled by Joe Coehlo’s Smile Out Loud, featuring 25 happy poems to read aloud and spread the cheer, while teen readers will find seriously positive vibes in the uplifting Today Will Be a Great Day, a mindful guide to happiness from Instagram sensation Slimy Oddity.

Our signature bold and bright art and design brings even long extinct creatures to vivid life, in Kaleidoscope of Dinosaurs and Prehistoric Life, a fascinating look at the cutting-edge science that is teaching us about the colours and patterns of dinosaurs and other ancient animals.

Empowerment of our children and our community is always our priority, and so I am very proud this season to share My Own Way, a beautifully simple introduction to gender freedom for little ones, translated and adapted from the original Portuguese by trans performance poet Jay Hulme. Young artists are encouraged to find their voices through creativity and self-expression with Art Makes People Powerful, an inspired activity book from British artist Bob and Roberta Smith.

MY OWN WAY
CELEBRATING GENDER FREEDOM FOR KIDS
Joana Estrela and Jay Hulme

A simple introduction to gender, taking readers of all ages beyond the binary.
Why feel limited to his or hers, blue or pink, football or ballet? Our identities can’t be defined by our gender. This colourful, simple book explores this idea teaches that there are no limits in what you can do and who you can be. Wear what you want and style your hair how you want. There is no gender in any of this!

JOANA ESTRELA is an illustrator and author living in Portugal. In 2014, she published her first book, Propaganda. In 2016, Planeta Tangerina published Mana, the winner of the 1st Serpa International Award for Picture Books. The book received the award for Best Illustration of a Picturebook (Portuguese Author) at the Amadora BD comics festival, the same year. JAY HULME is an award-winning transgender performance poet, speaker, writer and educator. Alongside his writing and regular performances, he teaches in schools and consults and speaks at events and conferences on the importance of diversity in the media, and more specifically transgender inclusion and rights. He has been focusing most recently on poetry for children and young adults, and the five-poet collection Rising Stars, of which he was a part, was Highly Commended in the 2018 CLiPPA awards - the UK’s biggest award for children’s poetry collections. His most recent collection, Clouds Cannot Cover Us, was nominated for the 2021 Carnegie Medal.

Not Your Average Maths Book

Anna Weltman. Illustrated by Paul Boston

Discover a wealth of incredible maths-facts!
Discover incredible maths-facts, such as how animals use arithmetic, and how people count around the world. Learn about life in other dimensions, and how mathematicians use unimaginably big and small numbers. Understand how maths is used in everyday life, and how our approach to maths has changed throughout history. This book will engage and entertain maths-loving children and reluctant mathematicians alike!

Anna Weltman is an author and maths teacher with a passion for showing kids how maths is present in the world all around us. She is co-founder of Math Munch, an online resource that provides a digest of mathematics for children and parents. The award-winning This is Not a Maths Book, written by Anna, was published by Ivy Kids in 2015. Paul Boston studied illustration and design at Brighton University, and is inspired by 1950s children’s books, antique maps and diagrams, 17th century engravings, Gothic art and Japanese prints. Paul’s charming depictions of people and places have been commissioned for global advertising campaigns, publishing projects and editorial commissions.
Nature is magical. Children instinctively understand that wild spaces, woods and gardens are special places. If you open your eyes, and your mind, you might spot something wondrous indeed! That is the theme of our charming spring release, The Fairy Garden, the story of a little girl who goes to great lengths to see fairies in her own garden – and learns about the value of wild places on the way.

Also upcoming this season are the Spring and Summer titles in our Little Country Cottage series of seasonal treasuries, containing delicious nature-based recipes, fun crafts and wisdom. Learn how to make strawberry fruit leather and delicious violet syrup; follow the instructions for growing juicy tomatoes from seed, and read about beneficial weeds in the garden.

As ever, the Ivy Kids books are all printed on 100% post-consumer recycled paper, meaning no new trees have been cut down to make them, and less water is needed for their production, too. The press where they are made is right here in the UK, meaning emissions from transport are reduced, and the materials have been carbon balanced through off setting schemes here in the UK, and around the world.

MEET THE NATIONAL ANIMALS
Catherine Veitch. Illustrated by Shiori Saito

A fresh, funny guide to some of the world’s national animals and the countries they live in.

A humorous look at some of the animals who represent their country, featuring over 35 amazing animals, from the mystical Scottish unicorn to China’s much-loved giant panda and the wonderful, but extinct, dodo from Mauritius. The witty text brings each animal to life and celebrates their quirks and characteristics. Plus, the conservation issues related to each animal and their habitat are explored. Includes a playful, charming narrative along the bottom of each spread, which sees Brown Bear gradually bring all the animals together as they travel the world, celebrating each country as they go. The illustrations inject warmth and humour into the narrative, making the animals the stars of their respective countries!

CATHARINE VEITCH trained as an infant primary teacher before working as an editor and writer for 20 years in children’s magazines and books. Today, she enjoys writing and creating content for children’s story, puzzle, activity and early learning books. SHIORI SAITO was born and raised in Japan and is a multidisciplinary artist, illustrator and designer. From illustrations to interactive installations, her creative output is diverse.

QED is a vibrant, eclectic list of fun educational books for children by expert writers and talented illustrators from around the world. Our diverse range of lyrical reference books, narrative nonfiction and engaging activity books help children learn more about a subject – at school or at home – and develop their interests beyond the classroom.

Our mission is simple – to create fresh, informative, high-quality books covering core educational topics and high-interest, curricula-adjacent themes that will appeal to children, parents and teachers alike. All our books offer the reader something that can help them long after the book is closed: knowledge and skills, which create pathways to understanding the world, and imagination and creativity, which transport readers into different worlds.

QED has some wonderful titles for Spring 2022. We have a fantastic creative careers sticker book activity series I Want to be a Fashion Designer and I Want to be an Interior Designer. We will also be publishing the first two titles in our exciting new narrative nonfiction series Really Wild Families, Little Lion and Little Bee. And finally, the perfect Spring title and my personal favourite, It Starts with a Bee, a beautiful picture book which takes you on a lyrical journey through the seasons as you follow a busy bee pollinate a wild garden. These new titles showcase exactly what QED is about – books that inspire, educate and entertain.

It Starts With a Bee

Watch a tiny bee bring the world to bloom

QED. Illustrated by Jennie Webber

A story of life in close-up which children will love to visit again and again.

With lyrical text and enchanting illustrations, journey through the seasons as you follow a busy bee pollinating a wild garden. As the seasons change and the garden blooms, the bee is joined by well-loved minibeasts and creatures – worms, beetles, spiders and mice – who make the wild garden their home. A rhyming poem builds page on page and the story culminates with a fold-out page showing a wild garden in full bloom.

MY TIME CAPSULE ART JOURNAL: ALL ABOUT ME
TELL THE FUTURE YOU ALL ABOUT YOUR CURRENT SELF WITH THESE FUN DRAWING AND JOURNAL PROMPTS
Pamela Chen and Nicole Sipe

An interactive journaling experience that allows kids to draw, doodle, design, and color the answers to questions about everyday life in order to record a slice of their lives to look back on later.
With creative and imaginative drawing prompts, My Time Capsule Art Journal: All About Me is an interactive journaling experience that allows kids to record their lives through art, creative activities, and words at a given point in time. Meant to entertain and be fun in the moment, this drawing journal is also to be kept and become a treasured keepsake years later. This book is filled with quick and easy-to-answer questions and space to write, draw, and doodle the answers. Also included are activities to entertain and reflect on, suggestions of things to tape or paste inside, things to color, and tips on how to doodle everyday life. Each prompt will be dated, so the book can be completed all at once or over a longer period of time, and in no particular order. Once the last journal and drawing prompt is complete, journalers will mark the date to open, and put the book away. Their time capsule awaits their older selves!

NICOLA SIPE is an editor and a children's book author. Born and raised in Southern California, Nicole now lives in Indiana. PAMELA (XINYU) CHEN is an illustrator and designer from China who earned a BFA Illustration degree from Columbus College of Art & Design (CCAD) in 2020.

Pavilion Children’s Books publish a range of beautiful picture books and non-fiction titles, and last year we launched our new illustrated fiction range. Our books each have a strong voice, a clear message and wonderful illustrations. Pavilion Children’s Books takes pride in nurturing exciting new talent alongside publishing some of the best-known authors and illustrators working today, including Adam Hargreaves, Quentin Blake, Terry Jones, Michael Foreman and Ralph Steadman. The list includes picture books, illustrated non-fiction and illustrated classics.

EK Books publishes picture books with heart on issues that matter. Engaging and creative, our books help kids with a range of important issues, from common problems like self-esteem to more sensitive issues like domestic violence, the death of a pet, or the illness of a grandparent. But don’t let the heavy topics fool you — our books are designed to put a smile on the face of the reader, and leave kids and parents feeling reassured, uplifted and inspired.
This spring, Pavilion Children's Books has a wonderful selection of beautifully illustrated titles. Barry Falls has written and illustrated a gorgeous ode to the creativity of children. Dare We Be Dragons? celebrates imagination and invention and is a joyful love letter between parent and child. The More Monster is a glorious romp of a picture book with an important message about greed and sharing. It’s from debut illustrator and writer Hayley Wells and is certainly one to watch.

A chance encounter at a book fair led to a creative partnership for Rose Blake and Maisie Paradise Shearring. Bob and Bunk is the tale of two cats. Bob, the indoor cat is illustrated in Rose’s clean and colourful style, while Bunk, a cat with a free spirit, is illustrated by Maisie in her glorious loose style. What happens when the two cats meet?

In non-fiction, we have a rousing call to action in Generation Green from 16-year-old Holly Gillibrand. There's also an innovative art activity book, The Looking Book, that challenges us to look at the world differently and see like an artist. Add to those the second brilliant Moose & Mr Brown book from Sir Paul Smith and Sam Usher, plus a great celebration of Leonardo da Vinci and lots more. I hope you’ll find plenty to enjoy this spring.

Neil Dunnicliffe
Publisher, Pavilion Children’s Books
A modern fairy tale with a moral message, teaching children the value of sharing and making society more fair.

A monster controls an island. It always wants MORE of the best, newest, shiniest things. Until one day, a little islander decides enough is enough and tries to discover why the monster always wants more. Will the monster learn to share, and appreciate a simpler life? Do we all need to keep producing and consuming more in order to be happy... or should we all be less greedy? The debut picture book from a bright new talent.

THE MORE MONSTER

Hayley Wells

HAYLEY WELLS graduated with an MA in Children’s Book Illustration from the Cambridge School of Art. They are interested in discussing political topics such as environmentalism through their work, but with an emphasis on playful and accessible artwork to offset any underlying darkness.

A tale of two cats: Bob, the pampered indoor cat who likes curling up on the sofa and watching TV, and Bunk, the wild spirit outdoor cat who likes rolling about in the garden and playing with leaves. They’re both pretty different, but when Bob and Bunk meet they realise they’re pretty similar, too...

This is a unique picture book, bringing together two brilliant author-illustrators to collaborate. The illustrations are a mix of Maisie Paradise Shearring and Rose Blake’s work, each illustrating the vibrant and amusing worlds of their own real-life cats, and what happens when these worlds collide.

MAISIE PARADISE SHEARRING is an author and illustrator. She won the International Award for Illustration at Bologna Children’s Book Fair in 2015.

ROSE BLAKE is an illustrator and artist. She was awarded the D&AD Best New Blood Award and won the New Horizons prize at the Bologna Book Fair. She is the illustrator of We’re All Works of Art.

DARE WE BE DRAGONS?

Barry Falls

Following the fantastic It's Your World Now! and Alone!, this is the third book by award-winning author and illustrator Barry Falls. Celebrating the imaginative potential in every day, this is a story about adventure, imagination and play. Even the most mundane and everyday objects can become gateways to wild and wonderful worlds – tree trunks become giants’ legs, a playground swing becomes a space rocket, a grassy hill becomes a towering volcano... With spreads split between everyday reality and imaginative fantasy, this stunning picture book has a subtle and heartfelt message about the relationship between parent and child.

BARRY FALLS has worked as an illustrator for a range of clients in publishing, design and advertising, including the New York Times, Orange, Unicef, NSPCC and the Guardian. He has won multiple awards and lectures in illustration at Ulster University.

Maybe you’ll see a building with eyes and a mouth, a cloud that looks like a dog or a dog that looks like a cloud! It’s full of space to draw, write and stick things in and activities to complete, as well as information about artists that you may not already know.

LUCIA VINTI makes work about people, places, food and culture, drawing inspiration from the world around her. Working in pencil, pen, collage and paint, Lucia creates joyful and colourful illustrations that reflect on her observations. She was the winner of a World Illustration Award in 2020.
Leonardo da Vinci’s Life of Invention
Jake Williams

Immerse yourself in the world of the spellbinding genius of Leonardo da Vinci.
Leonardo da Vinci was a master of art, architecture, engineering, mathematics and more. Discover his relationship with the natural world, his futuristic inventions and the breadth of his artistic skill in this beautiful celebration of his life’s work. Follow his early years – born to a poor mother, educated in an artist’s studio and receiving no formal education – and learn about his legacy today, together with the influence of his inventions in daily life.

Generation Green
Go Wild, Don’t Play by the Rules
Holly Gillibrand

A revolutionary and rule-breaking debut book from Scotland’s answer to Greta Thunberg, Holly Gillibrand.
Rewilding usually applies to nature – returning it to its wild roots, but in this book Holly argues that we should return to the wild in terms of our cities, our economy and ourselves. In this pioneering manifesto, Holly sets out how green issues are intertwined with LGBTQ+ and gender politics, and calls to change the world with chapters that look to the future and how a new society could develop. This is a ground-breaking new look at a greener future.

Books with heart on issues that matter!

Welcome to EK Books! As a boutique children’s picture book imprint, we pride ourselves on publishing sensitive stories, superbly told.

EK has received global recognition for successfully publishing on topics others fear to touch. There is a driving passion at EK and even just a quick glance at our books shows how much we care about making a difference. Our books are crafted by authors and illustrators whose backgrounds include teaching and psychology. These creators have a knack for unpacking complex issues, making them engaging and memorable for even our youngest readers.

From entering the world of a relative with dementia to a child with autism, from overcoming anxiety to coping with the loss of a parent, from finding the courage to step outside your comfort zone to exploring new countries, from moving house to making friends, and much more, EK has real life happily covered for children aged 4 to 10. Teacher’s notes are prepared for each book to provide a guided learning experience for readers, making our books especially valuable resources for use in schools and libraries, as well as at home.

Teacher’s notes and classroom resources are available from www.ekbooks.org.

The Cat Thief
Pat Simmons. Illustrated by Liz Duthie

Cheeky, fun illustrations encapsulate Olive’s unfortunate efforts to steal a cat. Will she eventually own the cat of her dreams? Olive would love to own a pet cat but her plan to steal one doesn’t seem to be working... Olive has another idea. Will she finally find the cat of her dreams? A humorous picture book for young children up to eight years, the book includes some intertextuality which will amuse adults reading the book out loud. It’s the purrfect adventure for cat lovers!

PAT SIMMONS writes poetry, short stories and picture books. Her work has been published in anthologies and children’s literary magazines including NSW School Magazine, Alphabet Soup and Looking Glass Magazine. LIZ DUTHIE’s fine arts training has given her a flexible style that expresses humour, emotion and movement using traditional mediums such as water colour, pen and ink, acrylic, pencil and mixed media.

Milly and the Mulberry Tree

Vikki Conley. Illustrated by Deb Hudson

Milly’s mulberry tree is the centre of her world; the place where she plays with her Papa, learns about nature, and creates magical potions… until she grows up and finds herself in a faraway land, still dreaming of home.

A simple yet heartfelt story about growing up, family and home.

Inspired by the 100-year-old mulberry tree that grows in the author’s own childhood garden, it highlights the importance of exploring new worlds as we grow, while keeping home close to our hearts. Any young readers who like playing outdoors or have their own special hideaway will delight in the vibrant illustrations, the playful prose, and the memories Milly makes under her beloved mulberry tree.

VIKKI CONLEY is a CBCA notable author with eight internationally published picture books. She has worked as a professional writer, photographer and marketer for over 20 years. Vikki is a nature lover, intrepid traveller and passionate climber of a 100-year-old mulberry tree that still grows at her childhood home. She writes children’s stories that celebrate the spirit of wonder, adventure and freedom. Vikki lives in the leafy artist community of Eltham, Victoria in Australia. Her books include Ella and Mrs Gooseberry (EK Books) and Tomorrow Girl (EK Books).
This inspirational story provides a sensitive method of discussing ways children may feel they are “different”.

Sapling Green is a gentle, quiet girl with a secret she’s scared to show the world. Noisy Wynn Farthing is the best at climbing the schoolyard tree. One terrible day, after a storm, the gardener says the tree must come down. Can Sapling use her secret to save the day? This heartwarming, relatable story reminds us that our differences are our strengths, and we should accept each other for who we are.

The Glint of Gold
Kate McGann. Illustrated by Patricia Ward

A beautifully illustrated book with positive messages to help younger people grow with a positive mindset and outlook.

It’s there every day if you look for it. The glint of gold. It’s in the white blossom of a plum tree against a blue sky. Or the sparkles Jack Frost leaves on the drive to school... A heart-warming story to inspire awareness, gratitude and positive thinking.

Freddy the Not-Teddy
Kristen Schroeder. Illustrated by Hilary Jean Tapper

An inspiring story about being true to yourself.

Is Freddy, Jonah’s favourite toy, a funky duck, a peculiar platypus, a punk rock penguin? He’s certainly not a Teddy, which might be a problem at the Teddy Bears’ Picnic! Find out what happens when Jonah stands up for Freddy in a heart-warming story that will resonate with any child who has ever felt different. Celebrating inclusivity and kindness, this will inspire young readers to express themselves just as they are.

My Storee
Paul Russell. Illustrated by Aška

Get inspired to share your stories boldly and bravely!

A young boy has a mind full of wonderful stories, but when he writes them down, they come back covered in red pen when his teachers correct his spelling. Will his dyslexia always hold him back from sharing his creativity? Then a new teacher arrives! This is an engaging, creatively designed picture book, providing inspiration and support for reluctant writers and dyslexics, and shows the importance and power of good teachers.

Night Lights
Inda Ahmad Zahri. Illustrated by Lesley McGee

An exploration of childhood memories growing up in the Malaysian countryside.

This story recounts the childhood memories of cousins growing up with their grandparents deep in the Malaysian countryside. In a time without the glare and distraction of modern technology, they discover the brilliance of nature by moon and candlelight. Cultural details are woven into the story as they honour the special bond they have with their grandparents.
